
Mink Farm Kennels

Posted by smpowell - 2007/11/17 21:15

I haven't used Mink Farm Kennels previously (Knaphill), and have mine booked in for an overnight stay on 28th Nov. Mink have been highly recommended by more than a couple of local people. I must say that in just a couple of times of having spoken with them on the phone, they have seemed most polite, very helpful and efficient.

I'll return after the 28th and register my review.
